

Main Street, Greetham
Asking Price Of £600,000

Turnabout cottage is a stone built four-bedroom extended family home with the added benefit of a detached annexe. Set within good sized grounds, in the centre of Greetham village. With plenty of character throughout the home, it also benefits from high ceilings and built-in storage. Entering a spacious hallway with a door off to the sitting room, which offers a wood burner and French doors to the garden. The inner hallway gives access to a family/dining room with an open fire, a downstairs W/C, and a well-equipped breakfast kitchen. Leading off the kitchen and completing this floor is a utility / boot room with plumbing for a washing machine, space for a tumble dryer and a Fridge Freezer. Climbing the stairs to the landing, you will find the main bedroom with en-suite shower room, two further double bedrooms, a good-sized single which is ideal for an office and a separate WC. The family bathroom houses a separate shower and corner bath. Annexe - The annexe has separate access and parking along with a lovely courtyard area. Enter the lounge, which is part vaulted, and you find have a good-sized double bedroom. Drop down a couple of steps to the kitchen and shower room. The annexe also has the added benefits of current planning permission to extend to the rear. This will change the layout of the annexe. The owner has carried out the groundwork and up to footings level. Plans can be seen on Rutland Country council website 2024/0656/FUL

Outside – To the side is a driveway for four cars, newly planted fruit trees, steps leading up to the annexe front entrance and garden with a mature walnut tree. Through the gate, leads to two single garages and patio area which skirts around the back of the cottage to a secluded courtyard. Steps then lead to the main garden, landscaped but mainly laid to lawn with mature shrubs and trees. Further steps lead to the back of the annexe, and top lawned area.

Greetham is a pretty village to the north / east of Oakham with excellent travel links being approximately 3 miles from the A1. The east coast mainline runs through Peterborough and Grantham, allowing access to London in less than an hour by train. The village boasts two great pubs, one which has incorporated the village shop and sits just four miles from Rutland Water with a regular bus service to Oakham and beyond.
