This pristine three-bedroom detached house, built of Cotswold Stone 10 years ago, occupies a large corner plot with a garage and off-road parking for 7 cars.

The current owners have lovingly maintained and upgraded their home to include a new glass enclosed porch, reconfiguration of and new kitchen dining room with snug, a wood-burner in the living room, new quality bathrooms, a new external boiler, an outside summerhouse, workshop/gym and potting shed. The garage has a new electric door and a new composite courtesy door into the garden.

In show home condition and with attention to detail evident throughout, this beautiful home is set on a peaceful and private cul-de-sac of just 9 properties, opposite a paddock, on the edge of the popular village of Nassington. The neutral decoration and naturally light accommodation makes this an easy to live in property with three double bedrooms, all with fitted wardrobes, and beautiful aspects from every window over the established and well-designed south-facing gardens.

An internal viewing of this immaculate property will not disappoint.
