Thorpe Satchville is a quaint village located approximately five miles due south of Melton Mowbray town centre. The village has a rich variety of property, mostly dating back to the Victorian era. The village is well-positioned on the B6047 for links to Melton Mowbray and Market Harborough. There are an abundance of footpaths from Thorpe Satchville - it is positioned on the Leicestershire Round. Primary schooling is available at the nearby village of Great Dalby and state secondary schooling in Melton Mowbray. Excellent state education available from Oakham and Stamford Schools and Ratcliffe College.
