Very active village with village Hall and community, whilst there are fabulous rural walks from the village, including George Henry woods, and the fascinating Yew Tree Avenue in the neighbouring village of Clipsham (1.6 miles), which is over 200 years old and consists over 150 clipped Yew Trees in all manner of unusual shapes and sizes. The Olive Branch in Clipsham is well-renown country inn.

The market towns of Oakham, Grantham (both 12 miles) and Stamford (14 miles) are easily accessible. Each offer a variety of facilities, boutique shops, supermarkets, cafes, pubs and restaurants, as well as sought after state, independent or grammar schools.

The village is well placed for access to Rutland's county town and Rutland Water, as well to the A1 for north-south travel to Grantham (or Peterborough's) East Coast Mainline railway stations for commuters.
