

Riverside Maltings, Oundle
£167,500

Riverside Maltings offers accommodation for individuals aged 55 and over, managed by an on-site management office. The development features a community room for social activities and shared outdoor courtyard and gardens.

This two-bedroom ground floor apartment is presented in immaculate condition and has been continually upgraded by the current owner.

As you enter this property you are greeted with an entrance hallway, leading to the bedrooms. The first bedroom is a good size double benefitting from a double built in wardrobe; this room is neutrally decorated and offers additional space for storage. The second bedroom is a substantial single.

The hallway leads through to the living/dining room, which is open plan with a large window overlooking the courtyard. A door connects into the newly fitted Shaker kitchen. The kitchen benefits from an integrated fridge/ freezer oven, hob, and washing machine.

A clean, spacious shower room completes the accommodation, with a good size shower, heated towel rail and large storage cupboard. The shower room has floor to ceiling tiling.

This property has been beautifully kept and maintained, with newly fitted carpets throughout. Additionally, this property benefits from a garage.

This development also offers a communal car park.
