An impressive Bradstone four-bedroom home tucked away down a private road, in the desirable conservation village of Apethorpe, backing onto miles of uninterrupted countryside. This stunning home offers spacious and bright living space throughout, has solar panels, an en-suite shower room, a double garage, driveway and beautiful gardens.

Offering many outstanding features, including a grand living room with a stone fireplace, and a galleried dining room with French doors providing beautiful views of the garden and beyond. The kitchen has painted wood cabinets with marble worksurfaces, space for a breakfast table and three windows ensuring plenty of natural light. Additionally, the ground floor has a cloakroom, and utility area which is situated in the garage. Upstairs, the large main bedroom is dual aspect and benefits from an en-suite shower room with a walk-in shower. There are three further double bedrooms, one of which runs the full depth of the property, with a window both to the front and the rear. A family bathroom with a separate bath and large shower completes this level. The enviable gardens provide space for the whole family, with raised beds, lawn, patio and outdoor dining area. Your eye is drawn to the ha ha wall at the back of the garden onto the outstanding views of undulating countryside. This well-balanced home offers over 3100 square foot of accommodation and would make a delightful property for a growing family.

Located in the charming village of Apethorpe, well positioned between the market towns of Oundle and Stamford. Easy access to the A1, and Peterborough which provides train links to London in under an hour.

Total area: approx. 291.5 sq. metres (3137.4 sq. feet)
