A charming one-bedroom mews-style property, built in stone under a slate roof, situated at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac within walking distance of the centre of Oundle market town.

The ground floor offers a bright, dual-aspect open-plan living space. The kitchen provides ample worktop space, a gas hob, and tiled splashbacks. The staircase features a glass balustrade.

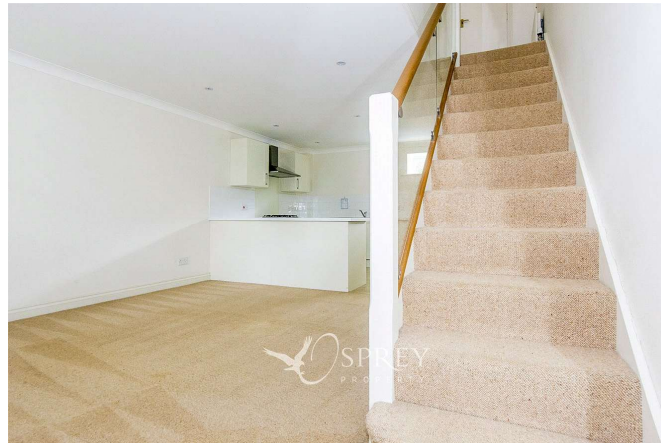

Upstairs, the bedroom is spacious and bright, with a large Velux window. The shower room is neutral and includes built-in storage and a heated towel rail.

Outside, the property enjoys a west-facing courtyard providing space for seating and outdoor dining.

This character home is presented in move in condition and is offered with no forward chain.

Oundle is a historic market town known for its excellent schooling, independent shops and weekly market. The town offers a range of cafés, restaurants, and local amenities, with countryside walks and good road links to nearby centres including Peterborough, Kettering and Corby.
