SPREY
PROPERTY

This delightful stone detached house is immaculately presented, in keeping with the age of the property. Having been extended in recent years, the current owners have also installed air source heating which gives a quarterly incentive payback for the next four years.

A south-facing cottage garden with central gravel path leads to an oak-framed porch and wooden door with stained glass windows. Beautifully tiled flooring in the hall gives access to a reception room either side, farmhouse style kitchen diner with utility, large conservatory and a downstairs bathroom. Views of the rear garden greet you on entry to the hall and can also be viewed from the second reception room through the conservatory and from the kitchen.

On the first floor there is a family bathroom and three double bedrooms, the main with a dressing room, walk-in wardrobe, Juliet balcony and en-suite shower room.

A perfect blend of retained character alongside modern improvements, this really is a property that has it all.

On the first floor, two double bedrooms with cast iron fireplaces are found at the south-facing front of the house. Along the landing there is another bathroom and to the rear is a dressing room that leads into the main bedroom with double height ceiling, a Juliet balcony with never-ending views, a walk-in wardrobe and an en-suite shower room.

The rear garden has a patio off the conservatory and kitchen, with lawn and rockery beyond in this contained area that is both dog and child friendly. Through a gate you will find a gravel parking area that has room for at least four vehicles. Behind the parking area is the remainder of the garden that has a mini orchard with apple trees and a wildlife garden. A vegetable plot with raised beds lead to a new greenhouse and an insulated workshop with power and light. Open fields lie beyond giving fabulous views.
